

RESULTS of the 1st PHOTO COMPETITION

The focus on our own local area and local people stirred up lots of interest, so we may keep that local interest in future competitions.

CATEGORY	SUBJECT	PHOTOGRAPHER
PEOPLE	Frank on Bike with Dogs	John Gleadell
PLACES	Horses in Paddock with Church	Ann Hooks
ANIMALS	Leaf surrounded by Caterpillars	John Gleadell
FUNNIEST	Grazing with a Cow	Shirley Winter

Great reponse, and thank you to all those who took part.

Congratulations to the winners!

We plan to make greetings cards from some of the entries, which can be sold to raise money for the church repair fund.

BAD NEWS:

- Film Club will be discontinued because of lack of support
- Garden Club will be to be discontinued because of lack of support.

GOOD NEWS:

- Family History Club is expected to continue with occasional meetings, using the village hall broadband connection and local expertise.
- We are to start a village Open Gardens. We hope that 3 villagers this summer will invite us to visit and enjoy their gardens (June, August and September). See below.

FIRST PARISH OPEN GARDEN

You are all invited to come and enjoy an afternoon in the garden of Audrey Anyan at Parsonage Cottage, Church Lane.

Saturday June 12th 2pm - 4pm.

- ❖ Bring a camera - you'll see Springthorpe from a quite different angle.
- ❖ Afternoon teas/coffee and cakes will be available.
- ❖ There will be a pick-up service for those of you who need a lift.
